University of Virginia

MARY WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA is located in America's most historic city amidst the finest traditions of Old Virginia, near our Nation's Capital, and accessible to the great centers of culture of the East. From the campus one can view the scenes of George Washington's boyhood; the home and tomb of his mother; and the gracious mansion, Kenmore, residence of his sister. A short distance away are Wakefield, his birthplace, Mount Vernon, and many other national shrines. The college is truly unique in loveliness of location, beauty of surroundings, and historic heritage. Considering the historic significance of Fredericksburg and the fact that it is one of the most cultural communities in America, it would be difficult to find a more fitting place for a college or an environment more stimulating.

This is a delightful place to spend the summer. The social and recreational opportunities and facilities are varied—spacious campus, beautiful groves, two roof gardens, large recreation halls, commodious indoor and outdoor swimming pools, a golf course on campus, amphitheatre, motion pictures, tennis courts, gymnasium, athletic fields, and saddle horses.

In addition, there are receptions and teas, formal and informal entertainment, tours, etc. A delightful home atmosphere adds to the contentment and happiness of the student body.

HISTORIC FREDERICKSBURG

Known as "America's Most Historic City," Fredericksburg itself offers a delightful opportunity for study of the Colonial backgrounds of American history. Almost in sight of the college are the home of Mary Washington, now administered as a shrine by the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities; the grave of Mary Washington and Meditation Rock, her favorite retreat; Kenmore, the home of George Washington's sister, built in 1752 and a magnificent specimen of Colonial architecture. Other shrines in the City of Fredericksburg include the Rising Sun Tavern, rendezvous of Richard Henry Lee, George Mason, Thomas Jefferson, Hugh Mercer, James Monroe, and others; the Law Office of James Monroe, fifth president of the United States; the Hugh Mercer Apothecary Shop, the first in America and a gathering place of patriots; the Masonic Lodge, where Washington was made a Mason; St. George's Church, of which the Rev. Patrick Henry, uncle of the famous orator, was the first rector; and George Washington's Boyhood Home, located immediately across the river from Fredericksburg.

The City of Fredericksburg is rich also in historical relics of the War Between the States. Historic Brompton, now a part of the college grounds, was the headquarters for the Confederates, and was the center of the Federal attack in both the first and second battles of Fredericksburg. Nearby is the National Cemetery, where 15,000 Northern soldiers are buried. The college itself is situated on Marye's Heights, scene of some very intense fighting. Just beyond the eastern end of the campus is the National Battlefield Museum, which houses one of the greatest collections of Civil War relics in America. Adjacent to Fredericksburg are the National Military Parks preserving four important battlefields: Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Spotsylvania Court House, and the Wilderness.

RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Mary Washington College offers unusual opportunities for recreation during the summer. The large outdoor swimming pool is open each afternoon with trained life guards on duty. A terrace for sun bathing is nearby. There are also two smaller outdoor pools and an indoor pool.

A long row of all-weather tennis courts extends from Willard Hall to the outdoor swimming pool. There are enough courts to provide ample facilities for playing at any hour of the day. Instruction in tennis, as well as golf, swimming, archery, and badminton, is offered by the staff of the Physical Education Department.

Dances are held on Friday evenings on the Terrace of Ann Carter Lee Hall. Picnics for students, faculty, and invited guests are scheduled in various recreational areas on the campus. In addition, there are several beaches nearby which are quite popular with students and their escorts. A varied program of interesting movies is scheduled for Saturday evenings.

The Oak Hill Stables, located a short distance from the western side of the campus, provide fine saddle horses. There are early morning riding classes if desired. Riding may be taken either for credit in physical education or for recreation. An attractively furnished club house is available at the Stables where parties and picnics are frequently held. There are interesting riding trails in the nearby battlefield parks.

Other facilities for recreation include a nine-hole golf course on the campus, a large auditorium with the latest type standard motion picture equipment, and an open-air theatre.

TRIPS AND TOURS

If a sufficient number of students sign up in advance each week, arrangements are made for a series of trips to national shrines, historical places, art galleries and museums, and state and national parks, all of which are in easy driving distance of Fredericksburg. The cost of these trips is very reasonable. Transportation is provided for a nominal charge, and lunches furnished by the college dining hall. Many of the places to be visited charge no admission; others charge an individual or group admission fee.

The cost of each trip will be announced in advance in order that students may sign up for the trip desired. Members of the college faculty and staff will accompany the party and discuss informally with the group the places visited.

Trips will be made in an air-conditioned bus of the most modern type owned by the College. Accommodating thirty-seven students, the bus is equipped with individual reclining seats, wide-view windows, and air-foam upholstery.

SIGHTSEEING VISITS

On successive Saturdays it is possible for trips to be scheduled as follows:

Mt. Vernon and Pohick Church; Arlington, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and Lee's Home; historic Alexandria and Masonic Memorial.

Wakefield, birthplace of George Washington; Stratford, home of Robert E. Lee; and Westmoreland State Park (salt water bathing).

Richmond (Virginia Museum of Art, White House of the Confederacy, Battle Abbey, Poe Shrine, State Capitol, St. John's Church).

Folger Shakespeare Library, Library of Congress, Capitol, Washington Monument, and Lincoln Memorial.

Colonial Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Yorktown.

Luray Caverns and trip on Skyline Drive (Shenandoah National Park).

National Museum of Art and Corcoran Art Gallery.

BUILDINGS AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The college plant includes the administration building, the library, classroom buildings, the science hall, the infirmary, dining halls, sixteen well-equipped residence halls, an amphitheatre, a central heating plant, laundry, chancellor's home, and other buildings.

The Fine Arts Center, an extensive group of buildings, completed in September, 1952, provides accommodations for art, music, dramatics, and speech. John Garland Pollard Hall, the north building in this group, is devoted exclusively to music. Gari Melchers Hall, the south building, is devoted to art.

Ann Carter Lee Hall, the student center, houses a modern indoor swimming pool, bowling alleys, large reception halls, two lounge rooms, a tea room known as the Terrace Room, and other facilities for student activities and recreation.

Residence Halls

Throughout the college, care has been exercised to provide comfort and an atmosphere in keeping with academic dignity. Each of the residence halls is in charge of a full-time head resident who is a friendly counselor. There are reception rooms in each of the halls where students entertain their guests, as well as small parlors and lounge rooms for study or informal gatherings.

The residence halls offer comfortable housing facilities: rooms with connecting bath, drawing rooms, lounge rooms, large porches and arcades, pressing rooms, kitchenettes, and shower baths.

The dormitory rooms are furnished with single beds, dressers, study tables, chairs, bookcases, and built-in closets. The student is expected to furnish sheets, pillow cases, bedspreads, towels, soap, and other articles desired.

Dining Halls

Seacobeck Hall, one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus, contains five dining rooms, a reception room, a model kitchen, offices for the dietitians, and storage rooms. It has the most modern equipment including a bakery, ice plant, and cold storage.

The artistically decorated dining halls are divided by French doors from the main reception room with its beautiful dome lighting and large fireplace. Here is a dignified setting for the formal dinners and banquets as well as a pleasant place in which to enjoy the regular meals which are prepared and served under the direction of experienced dietitians.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR ADMISSION TO SUMMER SESSION

The college admits to its summer session:

(a) High school graduates who desire to enter college in June instead of waiting until September, and thus save much valuable time and expense;

(b) The ever-increasing number of students regularly enrolled in college who desire to continue their studies in the summer in order to complete the requirements for a degree in three calendar years instead of four.

(c) Those who desire to make up some required work or to compensate for loss of time due to illness or some other reason;

(d) Students transferring from other standard colleges;

(e) Teachers who wish to renew or raise certificates or to take additional work toward a degree.

Applicants who are at least twenty-one years of age may be admitted as special students without satisfying the usual entrance requirements, provided they give evidence of serious purpose and show adequate preparation for the courses they wish to enter.

DIRECTIONS FOR ADMISSION

Students who wish to enroll for the Summer Session should file an application with the Director of Admissions. A form for requesting an application is contained in this bulletin. No application fee is required for enrollment in the Summer Session.
